

Annie Ward

Annie is a Philadelphia area native with 14 years dance experience in lyrical, jazz, musical theatre, ballet, contemporary, and tap. Born and raised in West Chester Pennsylvania, she has had the opportunity to perform at various venues around the Tri-State area. While Annie's most competitive style is Lyrical, she has an immense love for Musical Theatre and has danced in shows like West Side Story, Hairspray, Grease, Shrek, and Guys and Dolls.

While in high school Annie served as a dance assistant and choreographer for various productions. Her choreography has received multiple award nominations from the Greater Philadelphia Cappies organization. In 2015 Annie received the Capezio Special Dancer award through Starbound Talent Competition. With 2 years teaching experience and 5 years choreography experience, Annie is passionate about dance and the influence it can have on a child's life.

Annie is currently a senior at Penn State, studying broadcast journalism. In the future Annie hopes to work as a producer in either documentary film making or commercial video production.
